A lame excuse is one that doesn't go.

Lived 152 Years.

Wm. Parr—England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be youthful at 80. James Wright, of Spurluck, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." They're a god-send to weak, sickly rundown or old people. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

The town board of Farmington Saturday night by a unanimous vote refused to grant a continuance of the license to the only saloon remaining in town and adopted a resolution that while refusing to grant a license to E. J. Walters, the present saloonkeeper, no license for a saloon would be granted to any other person. The public schools were giving an entertainment at Allen's hall for the benefit of the public library and the resolutions were brought down to the hall and read to the audience and were greeted with deafening applause. At the close of the reading three cheers were given for the town board. The saloon did not open for business the morning after, its license having expired at midnight. This is the last saloon in San Juan county, Aztec having put them out over a year ago.

After a hearing before Justice of the Peace Williams at Inez, J. C. Starns, charged with the killing of his cousin and neighbor, Joe McCord, 20 miles from Portales this week was exonerated as it appears to the court that he had acted in self-defense. The shooting occurred near Arch. McCord, it is said, went into a field where Starns was at work with the purpose of settling a long standing difference between the two men. After a few words, it is said, McCord threatened Starns' life and left for home a few miles away, returning later with a Winchester, which he threw down on Starns just as the latter, rifle in hand, was about to mount his horse. Starns fired quickly three times, killing McCord instantly. Starns immediately hunted up Sheriff Bain and surrendered and was brought to Portales. Both men are well known in that section.

The Hoo Hoo house at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition is being erected at a cost of $15,000. Nine great black cats will be a feature of the decorative scheme. It will be the home for visiting lumbermen while the fair at Seattle is in progress.

"Do you think that most people nowadays worship money?" "No, I won't go as far as that," answered the home grown philosopher, "but I will say that the love of money is seldom platonic."—Philadelphia Ledger.

One of the novel things to be seen in the Hawaiian building at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle this summer will be moving pictures of the volcano Kilauea in eruption, showing the lava as it streams down the mountain side. The pictures have never before been exhibited outside of Honolulu.

Whooping Cough.

This is a more dangerous disease than is generally presumed. It will be a surprise to many to learn that more deaths result from it than from scarlet fever. Pneumonia often results from it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, and always with the best results. Delbert McKelg of Harlan, Iowa, says of it: "My boy took whooping cough when nine months old. He had it in the winter. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which proved good. I cannot recommend it too highly." For sale by all dealers.

"He has a mighty strong imagination for a real estate dealer." "Yea. He'd lay out an allotment in Mars and get husky cracking up the canal privileges."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

No, Maude, dear; a buggy is not a trap, although many a fellow has been trapped in one.

Many weak, nervous women have been restored to health by Foley's Kidney Remedy, as it stimulates the kidneys so they will eliminate the waste matter from the blood. Impurities depress the nerves, causing nervous exhaustion and other ailments. Commence today and you will soon be well. Pleasant to take. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.

Chamberlain's Liniment.

This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflammatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lame back, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this liniment. For sale by all dealers.

An alarm clock always sounds sweetest when it goes off and you realize that you don't have to get up.

Kills to Stop the Fiend.

The worst foe for 12 years of John Deye, of Gladwin, Mich., was a running ulcer. He paid doctors over $400.00 without benefit. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve killed the ulcer and cured him. Cures Fever-Sores, Boils, Felons, Eczema, Salt-Rheum. Infallible for Piles, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Corns. 25c at all druggists.

A woman calls it being frank when she will admit she was born a year after her younger brother.

Hoarseness, bronchitis and other throat troubles are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar as it soothes and heals the inflamed throat and bronchial tubes and the most obstinate cough disappears. Insist upon having the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.
